

HOW DO I LOG IN TO A LIBRARY COMPUTER?

Library computers for patrons comply with UFS specifications and you can log in the same way you would log in to any lab or office computer.

Start up the computer. Press CTRL+Alt+Delete or use the Windows Security button to log in.

The UFS Acceptable Usage Policy will appear. Proceed with your login if you accept the terms, conditions and all related company policies.

Log in using your Kovsies login:

Kovsies\username

Kovsies password

The library computers are public computers. Log out before you leave.
